THE MANSION

WARNING: READ BEFORE USING YOUR PLAYSTATION®2 COMPUTER ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM.

A very small percentage of individuals may experience epileptic seizures when exposed to certain light patterns or flashing lights. Exposure to certain patterns or backgrounds on a television screen or while playing video games, including games played on the PlayStation®2 console, may induce an epileptic seizure in these individuals. Certain conditions may induce previously undetected epileptic symptoms even in persons who have no history of prior seizures or epilepsy. If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game – dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions – IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

WARNING TO OWNERS OF PROJECTION TELEVISIONS:

Do not connect your PlayStation®2 console to a projection TV without first consulting the user manual for your projection TV, unless it is of the LCD type. Otherwise, it may permanently damage your TV screen.

USE OF UNAUTHORIZED PRODUCT:

The use of software or peripherals not authorized by Sony Computer Entertainment America may damage your console and/or invalidate your warranty. Only official or licensed peripherals should be used in the controller ports or memory card slots.

HANDLING YOUR PLAYSTATION®2 FORMAT DISC:

- This disc is intended for use only with PlayStation®2 consoles with the NTSC U/C designation.
- Do not bend it, crush it or submerge it in liquids.
- Do not leave it in direct sunlight or near a radiator or other source of heat.
- Be sure to take an occasional rest break during extended play.
- Keep this compact disc clean. Always hold the disc by the edges and keep it in its protective case when not in use. Clean the disc with a lint-free, soft, dry cloth, wiping in straight lines from center to outer edge. Never use solvents or abrasive cleaners.

12. INDEMNITY. At Company's request, you agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company, its affiliates, contractors, officers, directors, employees, agents, licensors, licensees, distributors, content providers, and other users of the Program, from all damages, losses, liabilities, claims and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising directly or indirectly from your acts and omissions to act in using the Program pursuant to the terms of this License Agreement or any breach of this License Agreement by you. Company reserves the right, at its own expense, to assume the exclusive defense and control of any matter otherwise subject to indemnification by you hereunder, and in such event, you shall have no further obligation to provide indemnification for such matter.

13. U.S. GOVERNMENT RESTRICTED RIGHTS. The Program and documentation have been developed entirely at private expense and are provided as "Commercial Computer Software" or "restricted computer software." Use, duplication or disclosure by the U.S. Government or a U.S. Government subcontractor is subject to the restrictions set forth in subparagraph (c)(1)(ii) of the Rights in Technical Data and Computer Software clauses in DFARS 252.227-7013 or as set forth in subparagraph (c)(1) and (2) of the Commercial Computer Software Restricted Rights clauses at FAR 52.227-19, as applicable. The Contractor / Manufacturer is ARUSH Publishing Corporation, 13951 N. Scottsdale Road, Suite 233, Scottsdale, AZ 85254.

14. TERMINATION. Without prejudice to any other rights of Company, this License Agreement and your right to use the Program may automatically terminate without notice from Company if you fail to comply with any provision of this Agreement, or any terms and conditions associated with the Program. In such event, you must destroy all copies of this Program and all of its component parts.

15. GENERAL PROVISIONS. You may not use, copy, modify, sublicense, rent, sell, assign or transfer the rights or obligations granted to you in this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. Any assignment in violation of this Agreement is void, except that you may transfer your Program to another person provided that person accepts the terms of this License Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make it enforceable, and such decision shall not affect the enforceability of: (i) such provision under other circumstances, or (ii) the remaining provisions hereof under all circumstances. Company's failure to enforce at any time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall in no way be construed to be a present or future waiver of such provisions, nor in any way affect the right of any party to enforce each and every such provision thereafter. The express waiver by Company of any provision, condition or requirement of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any future obligation to comply with such provision, condition or requirement. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, no default, delay or failure to perform on the part of Company shall be considered a breach of this Agreement if such default, delay or failure to perform is shown to be due to causes beyond the reasonable control of Company. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Arizona and the United States without regard to its conflicts of laws rules and you consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Maricopa County, Arizona. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Agreement. This Agreement represents the complete agreement concerning this License Agreement between you and Company.

If you have any questions concerning this License Agreement, you may contact ARUSH Publishing Corporation at 13951 N. Scottsdale Road, Suite 233, Scottsdale, AZ, (480) 609-8665, Attn. Jim Perkins, or webmaster@arushgames.com.

8. To the maximum extent allowed by law, Company, its licensors and subcontractors do not warrant any connection to, transmission over, or results or use of, any network connection or facilities provided (or failed to be provided) through the Program. You are responsible for assessing your own computer needs and, if applicable, transmission network needs, and the results to be obtained therefrom. YOU EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT USE OF THE PROGRAM IS AT YOUR SOLE RISK. THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS," "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS, UNLESS SUCH WARRANTIES ARE LEGALLY INCAPABLE OF EXCLUSION. EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO THE LIMITED CD-ROM WARRANTY AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 9 BELOW, COMPANY AND ITS LICENSORS DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS, WHETHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS, AND THOSE ARISING FROM A COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE, REGARDING THE PROGRAM. COMPANY AND ITS LICENSORS ASSUME NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES SUFFERED BY YOU, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF DATA, ITEMS OR OTHER MATERIALS FROM DELAYS, NON-DELIVERIES, ERRORS, CAUSED BY COMPANY, ITS LICENSORS, LICENSEE AND/OR SUBCONTRACTORS, OR BY YOUR OWN ERRORS AND/OR OMISSIONS. Company and its Licensors make no warranty with respect to any related software or hardware used or provided by Company in connection with the Program except as expressly set forth above.

9. LIMITED WARRANTY. Company warrants to the original consumer purchaser of this Program that the recording medium on which the Program is recorded will be free from defects in material and workmanship for 90 days from the date of purchase. If the recording medium is found defective within 90 days of original purchase, you may return the Program and all accompanying materials along with your original receipt to the place you obtained it for a full refund or replacement, subject to such retailers return policy. This warranty is limited to the recording medium containing the Program as originally provided by Company and is not applicable to normal wear and tear. This warranty shall not be applicable and shall be void if the defect has arisen through abuse, mistreatment, or neglect. Any implied warranties prescribed by statute are expressly limited to the 90-day period described above.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT COMPANY AND ITS LICENSORS SHALL NOT ASSUME OR HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY ACTION BY COMPANY OR ITS CONTENT PROVIDERS, OTHER PARTICIPANTS OR OTHER LICENSORS WITH RESPECT TO CONDUCT, COMMUNICATION OR CONTENT OF THE PROGRAM. COMPANY AND ITS LICENSORS SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES RESULTING FROM POSSESSION, USE, OR MALFUNCTION OF THE PROGRAM, INCLUDING DAMAGES TO PROPERTY, LOSS OF GOODWILL, COMPUTER FAILURE OR MALFUNCTION AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, DAMAGES FOR PERSONAL INJURIES, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, COMPANY'S AND ITS LICENSORS' ENTIRE LIABILITY TO YOU AND YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT IS LIMITED SOLELY TO THE TOTAL AMOUNT PAID BY YOU FOR THE PROGRAM, IF ANY. BECAUSE SOME STATES DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CERTAIN DAMAGES, IN SUCH STATES COMPANY'S AND ITS LICENSORS' LIABILITY IS LIMITED TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

11. INJUNCTION. Because Company would be irreparably damaged if the terms of this License Agreement were not specifically enforced, you agree that Company shall be entitled, without bond, other security or proof of damages, to appropriate equitable remedies with respect to breaches of this Agreement, in addition to such other remedies as Company may otherwise have under applicable laws.

GETTING STARTED*

* Note: Illustration may not match all PlayStation 2 console types. For owners of SCPH-70000 series PlayStation 2 systems, refer to the setup instructions supplied with your system.

Set up your PlayStation² computer entertainment system according to the instructions in its Instruction Manual. Make sure the MAIN POWER switch (located on the back of the console) is turned ON. Press the RESET button. When the power indicator lights up, press the OPEN button and the display will open. Place the Playboy: The Mansion disc on the disc tray with the label side facing up. Press the OPEN button again and the disc tray will close. Attach game controllers and other peripherals, as appropriate. Follow on-screen instructions and refer to this manual for information on using the software.

Software License Agreement

1. READ THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE INSTALLING THE PROGRAM. THIS SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT IS A LEGAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN YOU (AN INDIVIDUAL OR A SINGLE ENTITY "YOU") ON ONE HAND, AND ARUSH PUBLISHING CORPORATION AND ITS PARENT, SUBSIDIARIES, AND AFFILIATES (COLLECTIVELY REFERRED TO AS "COMPANY") ON THE OTHER HAND, FOR THE SOFTWARE PRODUCT ENTITLED "PLAYBOY: THE MANSION," WHICH INCLUDES COMPUTER SOFTWARE AND ANY ASSOCIATED MEDIA AND/OR PRINTED MATERIALS (TOGETHER CALLED "PROGRAM"). BY OPENING THE PACKAGING MATERIALS FOR THE PROGRAM, OR INSTALLING, COPYING, OR OTHERWISE USING THE PROGRAM, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT, DO NOT INSTALL OR USE THE PROGRAM AND DELETE ALL COPIES IN YOUR POSSESSION.

2. Company grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Program, but retains all property rights in the Program and all copies thereof. You may install the Program on a single computer for use by a single, particular user. All rights not specifically granted under this Agreement are reserved by Company and, as applicable, Company's licensors. This Program is licensed, not sold, for your use. Your license confers no title or ownership in this Program and should not be construed as a sale of any rights in this Program.

3. You acknowledge that the Program in source code form remains a confidential trade secret of Company. You agree not to modify or attempt to reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Program, except and only to the extent that such activity is expressly permitted by applicable law notwithstanding this limitation.

4. OWNERSHIP. All right, title and interest and intellectual property rights in and to the Program (including but not limited to any titles, computer code, themes, objects, characters, character names, stories, dialog, catch phrases, locations, concepts, artwork, images, photographs, animations, video, sounds, audio-visual effects, music, musical compositions, text and "applets," incorporated into the Program), the accompanying printed materials, and any copies of the Program, are owned by Company or its licensors. This Agreement grants you no rights to use such content other than as part of the Program. All rights not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved by Company.

5. This Agreement is effective upon your opening of the packaging materials, installation, or your first use of the Program and shall continue until revoked by Company or until you breach any term hereof; upon termination you agree to destroy or delete all copies of the Program in your possession.

6. You shall not modify the Program or merge the Program into another computer program (except to the extent the Program is made to operate within a computer operating system and in connection with other computer programs) or create derivative works based upon the Program. You must get the written permission of Company to include the Program in any collection of software.

7. Do not run, use, or install the Program if you reside in a country to which the use or installation of the Program would violate U.S. export laws or regulations, and do not distribute the Program in violation of such laws or regulations. The Program may not be transferred or otherwise exported or re-exported into (or to a national or resident of) any country to which the U.S. has embargoed goods or to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department list of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Commerce Department's Table of Deny Orders. If you do not meet these criteria or are not sure, do not run or install the software and destroy any copies in your possession. If you live in such a country, no license is granted hereunder.

Use “Command” options to give people orders.

- Request Interviews, Essays or Cover Shoots from celebrities.
- Request Articles, Centerfolds or Pictorials from staff members.
- Ask Playboy Bunnies to greet guests or to serve drinks.
- Change a Playmate’s wardrobe.
- Ask people to follow you or order them to stop.

Use “Conversation” options to develop casual, professional or romantic relationships with people.

Casual conversation options have handshake capsules.

Professional conversation options have performance graph capsules.

Romantic conversation options have heart capsules.

Basic conversation options have portrait capsules and are not specific to a particular type of conversation.

The options that you see will vary depending on three factors: a “smooth” factor, which is generally the length of time you’ve been talking, the strength of your relationship as well as the character’s personal quirks and beliefs. For instance, some people won’t appear on the cover of your magazine, so you’ll never even get the opportunity to ask them. Other characters, like chaste people, are affected by their “quirks” and behave or misbehave accordingly.

The more you talk, the more options you’ll have available to you and the stronger your casual, professional or romantic relationship is likely to become. The stronger your relationship, the more likely you are to succeed in any conversation option or command.

See “The Consummate Host” section of the manual for more information on keeping people happy, interacting with others well and, therefore, getting what you want.

The Conversation HUD: Drives and Relationships

When you talk with someone, you'll see the Conversation HUD on your screen.

The Conversation HUD tells you all about your various relationships with a person as well as his or her drives and overall mood.

Relationship meters show you the strength of your relationship. A green bar represents a positive relationship. A red bar means they'd absolutely pay to be somewhere else. The longer the bar the stronger the sentiment. There are three types of relationships you can form with people:

- Casual relationships allow you to form friendships with others. People who have high casual relationships with you can be invited to join your Inner Circle. They'll be able to stop by whenever they'd like, and you're welcome to call them over, too.
- Professional relationships allow you to transform Playboy magazine from a one-shot wonder into a worldwide empire. You'll be able to sign contracts that'll further your career and make deals that will win you (or lose you) money.
- Romantic relationships lead to... well, girlfriends among other things. Your girlfriends have the ability to influence how others feel about you.

Drive meters show you how satisfied a person is in any one of his or her six drives. When a drive meter is green, the person is satisfied. As the drive drops, it turns red, and the person becomes less satisfied and needs to pursue activities to satisfy that drive. There are six drives, and each represents a person's need to pursue certain activities.

- The Entertainment Drive is the need to enjoy fun activities. Many things, from foosball to a dip in the Grotto, satisfy a person's entertainment drive.

- The Leisure Drive is the need to relax. People kick back and watch TV or lounge on a smooth leather sofa to satisfy their leisure drive.
- The Personal Development Drive represents people's desire to make him or herself the best person they can be personally and professionally. Time spent working out or reading satisfy a person's personal development drive.
- The Casual Relationship Drive is a person's need to form friendships with other people. Playing a game together, having casual conversations or revealing inner secrets satisfy a person's casual drive.
- The Professional Relationship Drive represents the inner mogul. Professional conversations satisfy a person's professional drive.
- The Romantic Relationship Drive represents a person's need to be romanced and to be romantic. Hugs, kisses and flirting all satisfy the romantic drive.
- The Mood Meter gives you an at-a-glance look at a person's mental state. Mood affects everything that people do, so it's important to keep people in good spirits by providing them with lots of action, social and otherwise. If people can't satisfy their drives, their moods will drop accordingly.

Using Objects

Select an object's name from the Action Menu to see the various actions associated with it. Use the left analog stick to highlight the action and press the X button to select it. Naturally, every object has different actions, and like Conversation, these actions satisfy people's drives. Having a diverse selection of items available in your mansion is the key to keeping your guests and your staff happy.

For more information on objects, see the "The Mansion menu" section of this manual.

Throwing Parties

Parties are a huge part of the Playboy lifestyle and an even bigger part of life at the Playboy Mansion. It's here that you'll make the connections you need — professional, romantic and casual. Every party has the potential of a new girlfriend or a contact with someone who might be a valuable and interesting source for magazine content. Most importantly, parties offer you an opportunity to increase your fame. The more famous you are, the more famous your friends will be.

Extras

From the Extras Menu, you can reach the Soundtracks, Cheats and Archives.

Soundtracks

Playboy: The Mansion comes with some of the best new music anywhere! Use the soundtrack menu to customize your play list.

Cheats

Reaching certain milestones and solving goals can win you reward points. You can use these points to purchase cheats in the game. Some cheats are one time only. Others can be purchased multiple times.

Archives

Your reward points can also be used to purchase Playboy archive content. Pull the left or right trigger to check out the various types of archival material available to you.

Just like Cheats, you can purchase archival material with reward points that you earn as you progress through the game.

Quit

Select the Quit option to go back to the real world and leave your Playmates, Playboy Bunnies, girlfriends and opulent lifestyle behind... or just keep playing.

Pause Menu

From the main gameplay screen, press the START button to pause the game. Use the left analog stick to select any of the Pause Menu's options.

Saving Your Game

You may save up to four different games to your PlayStation®2 memory card. To save your progress:

- Select Save Game from the Pause Menu
- Use the left analog stick to highlight a saved game slot and press the X button to save the game or overwrite the previously saved game.

Loading Your Game

To load a previously saved game:

- Select Load Game from the Pause Menu
- Use the left analog stick to highlight a previously saved game and press the X button to load it.

Adjusting Game Options

In the Game Options screen you may change Sound and Music Volume, turn Subtitles on or off, as well as Voices, Song titles and Vibration.

32

The Guest List

To make your parties all they can be, consider inviting:

- Staff members so any interviews or photoshoots that you secure can be done on the spot.
- Playboy Bunnies to serve and greet guests.
- Playboy Playmates to raise guests' moods.
- Your girlfriends to talk you up, raising (or lowering) your relationship value with people.

Naturally, there are only so many people you can invite at one time, so plan your guest list around your goals for the party. If you're trying to get content, invite staff. If you're trying to firm up a relationship with someone — a prospective business partner, say — invite that person plus several Playmates, Bunnies and charming girlfriends.

Getting Turned Down

After the invitations have been mailed, Jenny might inform you that one or more of your prospective guests have declined the invitation. Why? Well, usually invitations are declined when you've reached too high. For instance, when you're relatively new to the scene, your "fame" is basic at best. So, if you try to invite a superstar, they're more likely to say, "Hef who?" than, "Woohoo!" Invite people whose fame is close to yours.

When you start the game, your fame is pretty low.

The Roster Menu

Your Little Black Book

The Roster Menu — the electronic version of your not-so-little black book — contains detailed information on all the interesting people in your life. From the main gameplay screen, press down on the directional buttons to enter the Roster Menu.

People 101: Everything You Need to Know

Each Black Book entry contains all the information you could possibly want to know about a person.

- Name: For convenience sake, people are listed alphabetically by their first name. In your mansion, everyone's on a first name basis.
- Profession: Profession is listed in two places in the Roster Menu — an icon to the right of the person's name and underneath their name in their individual roster entry. If you're looking for someone to MC an event, a comedian is probably your best bet. You'll see the "entertainment" icon in his listing and "comedian" in his roster entry. Likewise, if you are trying to put together a sports issue, courting an athlete for a cover shot, interview or an essay will help you to do so. There are 13 different profession icons:

The Playboy Photoshoot

Getting Behind the Lens

The Playboy photo shoot fulfills every Playboy fan's wildest dreams. Ask a model or celebrity to pose, choose where to hold the photoshoot and then snap the sexy shots as your model poses for you. The attire, or lack thereof, makes the shots all the more alluring.

Aside from staring lovingly into the lens, you may:

- Snap a Picture: Press the button to snap a photograph. Bear in mind that you only have so much film, so wait for those key shots.
- Change Clothes: Press the button to go to the Wardrobe. There, you can dress or undress your model.
- Change Pose: Press the button to change a model's pose.
- Zoom In/Out: Use the L1 button or R1 button to zoom the lens in or out.
- Pan: Use the right analog stick to move around the model or the left analog stick to angle the camera up or down.

The location for the photo shoot creates different vibes, so select a location you feel best captures the essence you're after. Before the photo shoot, let your model and your photographer get to know one another. While it's not necessary — good photographers and models are quite capable of working with total strangers — the extra time spent can often mean higher-quality content.

The Market Screen lets you see how your decisions are likely to affect your sales:

- Cover Price: You can adjust your cover price to increase your sales or your revenue. While people are likely to pick up copies by the dozen if you lower the cover price to its minimum value, you probably won't be able to pay your staff.
- Ad Quantity: The more ads you have in a magazine, the more revenue you'll bring in. However, too many ads can irritate certain readers and cause them not to pick up another issue. Some demographics are more sensitive than others.
- Current Market Size: The black bar for each demographic shows you the strength of that market. The higher the black bar, the stronger the demographic.
- Expected Sales: The gold bar for each demographic shows you your current expected sell-through to that demographic. Selecting content that appeals to these interests will increase your sell-through in that market.

It's important to know that you can't thrill all demographics all the time. Your best bet is to cover your bases — aim for those markets that seem to be really hot by creating content that's designed just for them. For instance, if the sports market is rocking, try to get an athlete to provide you a cover shoot and an essay or request a sports-themed article from your journalist.

Selecting Playmate of the Year

After publishing your 12th issue, you'll face a most wonderful job — choosing Playmate of the Year (PMOY) from the past year's published Playmates. Every Playmate of the Year expects to appear on the cover and generally, a huge party is thrown in her honor.

Celebrity Professions

Staff Professions

- Fame: Stars under the person's name represent the most important measure of a person's success, fame. Five stars means that everyone in the world has likely heard of you. A sliver in a single star means that your mother may know you, vaguely... and if prompted to admit it with cash. Fame is incredibly important. The more famous you are, the more famous your friends will be. Fame affects relationships — it's easier to impress someone when you're famous. Likewise, the super famous tend not to be so impressed with the rank-and-file. Lastly, fame affects the quality of content that's produced. A photoshoot of Carmen Electra is worth far, far more than a photoshoot of Cindy Hoppenstock from Duluth. As Hef, you'll gain (or lose!) fame through parties, your magazine and special events that get your name out there.
- Zodiac: It's oh-so-80's! Zodiac signs influence relationships in soft, subtle ways.
- Current Location: As your mansion grows, you'll have a need to know what region people are in. There are numerous regions: Main mansion, Upper mansion, Pool and Clubhouse.

- Stats: Each person has three stats that affect almost everything they do.
- Physique: Physique is a measure of a character's physical shape, structure and tone. For Playmates and Bunnies, this stat is particularly important. It also helps others, however, in smaller, subtler ways. Physique can be improved by working out... and there are lots of ways to work out.
- Intellect: Intellect is the measure of a person's intelligence. Brilliant people will help to provide you with insightful articles, interviews and essays. Dumb people would have difficulty finding their way out of the Grotto. People can improve their intellect by doing various forms of research.
- Charm: Charm goes a long, long way in the world of business, love and friendship. The more charming a person, the easier he or she will find it to sign a deal or form a relationship. Playmates and Bunnies, in particular, rely upon their charm to influence viewers while journalists and photographers also find it necessary when working on interviews or photo shoots.
- Likes and Dislikes: A person's likes and dislikes are shown on the second page of their roster entry. Knowing a person's likes and dislikes is particularly useful when you're setting up conversations or looking for a particular style of content. The interest icons are:

- Buddies: A person's buddies are shown on the third page of their roster entry. These are people with whom the person has formed a close relationship, be it professional, romantic or casual.

Understanding Your Market

Putting together content of great quality is only half the battle. If the market's not interested in it, they won't read it no matter how good it is. As a publisher, it's important to pay attention to your market.

There are nine basic demographics that make up the total market. These demographics are identical to people's interests.

- Pictorial: Pictorials feature a collection of photographs of various women and fit a particular theme. To get a pictorial, you must first hire a photographer. Then, ask him or her to shoot a pictorial for you through the command menu. You'll have to pay their site expenses, of course.
- Essay: To get an essay, you'll need a willing celebrity. Develop a relationship with a celebrity and request an essay from the command menu. If they agree, you'll be quoted a price. If it's acceptable, the celebrity will leave to write your essay and return it to you when it's finished.
- Interview: Playboy is known for its incredible interviews. To get an interview, you'll first need a journalist on your staff. Next, you'll need a willing celebrity. Develop a relationship with a celebrity and request an interview from the command menu. If they agree, the celebrity and your journalist will get together to perform the interview. It may take some time for the interview to start, particularly if you're hosting a big party, but rest assured they'll find each other and do the job right.
- Article: To get an article, you'll first need a journalist on your staff. Next, request an article from the command menu. Your journalist will get to work right away.

Numerous things affect every piece of content:

- Stats: An utterly charmless interviewer isn't likely to produce stellar content nor is a Playmate with a poor physique.
- Mood: A staff member or a subject in a good mood is likely to provide much better content than his or her grumpy counterparts. ("Take the picture before I kill you, already.")
- Relationship: People who have spent some time getting to know one another tend to produce better content. If they've grown to hate each other, however, the content could suffer similarly.
- Interests: A person's likes and dislikes are likely to affect the quality or focus of the content they produce. If you're trying to put together an issue geared toward the sports market, asking a politician to write an essay about music isn't going to help. Asking an athlete to write an essay about sports will.

Advanced People 201: It Takes Different Kinds

For the purposes of your life, people can be split into four different groups. Press the LI button or RI button to move from screen to screen.

- In Mansion shows you a list of everyone currently in your mansion.
- Staff shows you a listing of your current staff as well as any prospective hire.
- Celebrities shows you all the rich and famous who are open to your invites.
- Inner Circle shows you your girlfriends and friends who come and go as they please.

Your Staff

Your staff members are the cornerstones of your entire empire. You have a great mind, but without Bunnies, Playmates, journalists and photographers, that's all you have. Each profession fulfills an important role.

- Playboy Bunnies are the consummate entertainers. Originally appearing in Playboy Clubs, Bunnies know how to keep a crowd hopping. Hire them for parties to greet your guests, serve drinks and keep them happy. Everyone is thrilled to meet a Playboy Bunny, and it will show!
- Playboy Playmates appear as centerfolds in your magazine. Playmates spend time working on themselves or attending the many functions at your mansion. Visitors are always in better spirits for having met them and appreciate you all the more. Once a Playmate appears as a centerfold, she may not do so again. However, she is available for cover shots and other forms of celebrity content.
- Photographers are hired for cover, pictorial and centerfold shoots. The best photographers work on their charm and their intellect, realizing it's as much about the camera as it is about the subject.
- Journalists are hired to provide articles and interviews for your magazine. The best journalists work on their intellect and their charm, believing it will improve the quality of their pieces.

To hire a particular staff member, press the ⊗ button. Your account will be charged one month's non-refundable salary, and they'll be automatically paid by direct deposit so long as they remain on your staff.

Unlike most people at your mansion, staff members are there to work, so they come and go.

Celebrities

A full staff is great, but it won't be much use to you unless they have someone to focus their lens on. That's where celebrities come in. The celebrity roster shows you a virtual "who's who" of the Hollywood crowd. You'll select from this crowd as well as the staff crowd when you throw a party. Celebrities can also provide you content for your magazine. They are your perfect interview, essay and cover shoot subjects. Throwing parties will be covered later in this manual.

Your Inner Circle

The Inner Circle is reserved for the best of the best, those individuals with whom you have formed a true bond either casually or romantically. To put people in your "Inner Circle", you may invite them to do so while talking with them. You may also ask a woman to be your girlfriend if your romantic relationship is strong enough.

People in your Inner Circle have distinct advantages:

Open Invitations: They can stop by whenever they want.

Casual Invites: You can call them to your mansion at anytime without the need for those expensive invitations. If you're tight for cash in a particular month, this can prove quite handy. A free invite and an almost certain "yes" to all content requests.

From time to time, people do leave your inner circle. If neglected, they might decide that your friendship isn't all it's cracked up to be. On the flip side, there are times when you and your girlfriend might not see eye to eye. If that's the case, talk with her to tell her how you're feeling. In Conversation, select the "Break Up With Girlfriend" option when it becomes available. Hopefully, there will be no hard feelings. If neglected, friends and girlfriends can leave your Inner Circle.

Advanced People 301: The Consummate Host

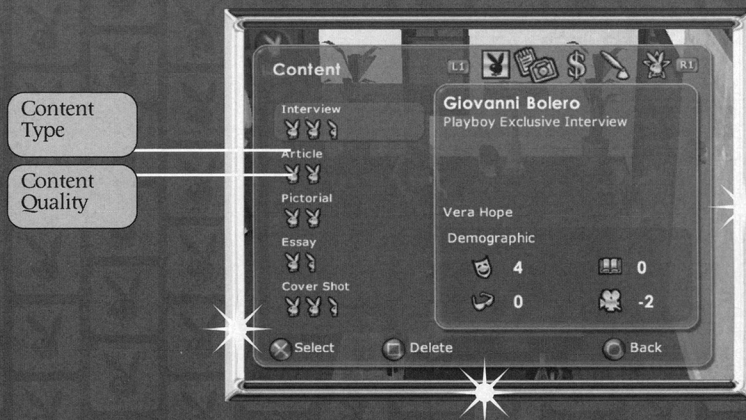

When people come to your mansion, they expect to have a fun time and to find the people and objects that will keep them in good spirits.

- When planning parties, balance your guest list. If you have a party with 9 men and 1 woman, she'll probably have a ball. On the flip side, you're likely to have 8 guys whose romantic drives are falling through the floor.

- Select Masthead Color: Press the  button to change the color of the Playboy masthead and cover text.
- Centerfold/Cover: Press the  button to toggle between the cover and the centerfold view.
- Selecting Content: Learn this in the next section.

The Content Screen: Putting A Magazine Together

Every issue of Playboy magazine contains six different types of content. Review the content you've created and select it for inclusion in the current issue in the Content Screen.

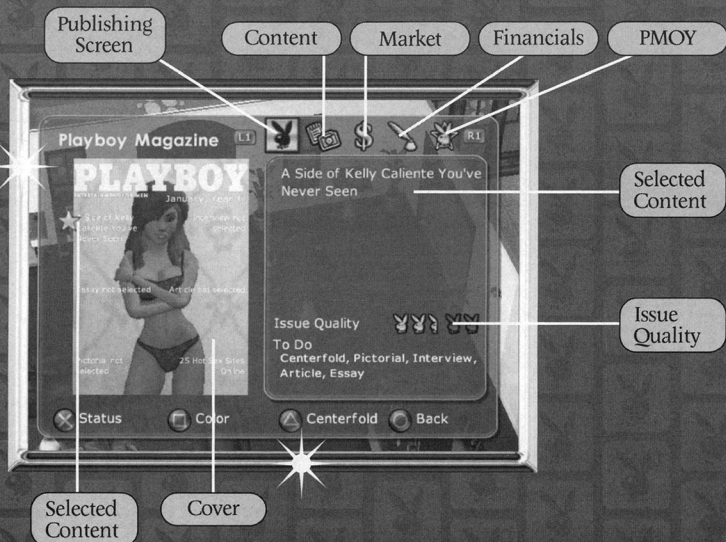

Every issue needs six pieces of content, one of each type:

- Cover shot: The cover of Playboy magazine always features a beautiful female celebrity. To create a cover shoot, you'll need a photographer on staff as well as a willing female celebrity. Develop a relationship with her, and ask her to do a cover shoot in the command menu.
- Centerfold: The centerfold of Playboy magazine features the famous Playboy Playmate. To create a centerfold shoot, you'll need a Playmate and a photographer on staff. Bear in mind that there are celebrity Playmates around your mansion who cannot pose for the centerfold. These Playmates are generally those who have already appeared in your magazine or real-life Playmates. Check the roster screen if you're not sure. In the Command menu, select Request Centerfold.

The Playboy Magazine Menu

You Really Can Read It For the Articles

What once was your dream is now a reality and on newsstands across the world. From the main gameplay screen, press up on the directional buttons to enter the Playboy magazine Menu. Pull the left and right triggers to move through its various submenus.

The Publishing Screen

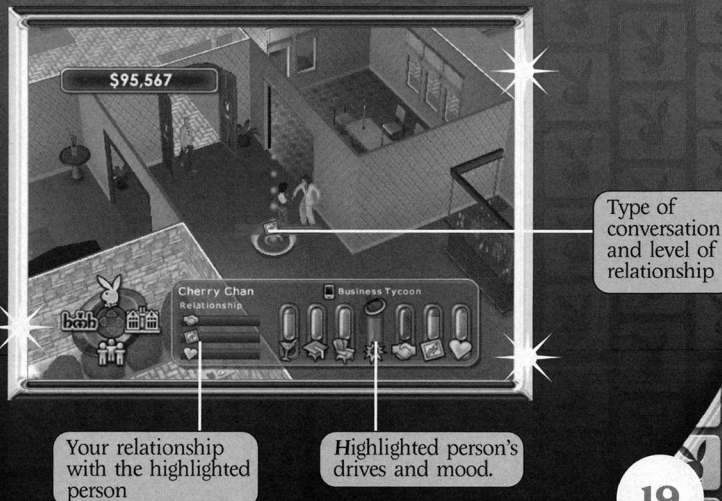

From the Publishing Screen, you can see how your current issue is shaping up and make some necessary adjustments.

- Issue Quality: Ranging from zero to five Bunny Heads, an issue's quality has a direct bearing on your sales and your fame. The higher your content's quality, the higher the overall issue quality.
- To Do List: This list notes the content still necessary to ship the issue.
- Status/Go to Print: When you have all the necessary content, press the X button to send the magazine to the printers. Should you press the button before you have the necessary content, you'll see a list of what remains.

- During a party, provide lots of opportunities for entertainment. Get a good sound system or splurge on a great game machine. When you purchase items in the Mansion Screen, covered elsewhere in this manual, make sure that they satisfy a person's entertainment drive.
- During a standard workday, provide lots of opportunities for professional development and leisure so that your mansion staff and guests remain satisfied.
- Keep an eye on "quirky" people. If you fill your mansion with 8 "drinkers" and 2 "confrontational" people, you're likely to have a mess on your hands. Carefully hand-picking your "quirky" people can work to your advantage.
- During a party, pay attention to the mood and flow of the event. People are going to get tired and leave at some point. If there's something you absolutely positively need to do at this party, do it first. That way, you won't be disappointed when your journalist heads home early, seconds after you lined up that big interview.

The People Finder

Press the △ button from the main gameplay screen to enter the People Finder. Like a pseudo spy cam, the People Finder lets you cruise around your mansion to investigate everyone's current state of being as well as the state of the conversation they find themselves in. Press the ○ button to exit the People Finder.

The People Finder is particularly useful if:

- You are trying to build a relationship between two different people. Once they begin talking, you can see the level of their relationship in that type of conversation.
- You want to see the level of a certain person's drives or mood.
- You're trying to locate someone in a particular region.
- You want to see what's happening in a particular area without actually walking there.

The Relationship Screen

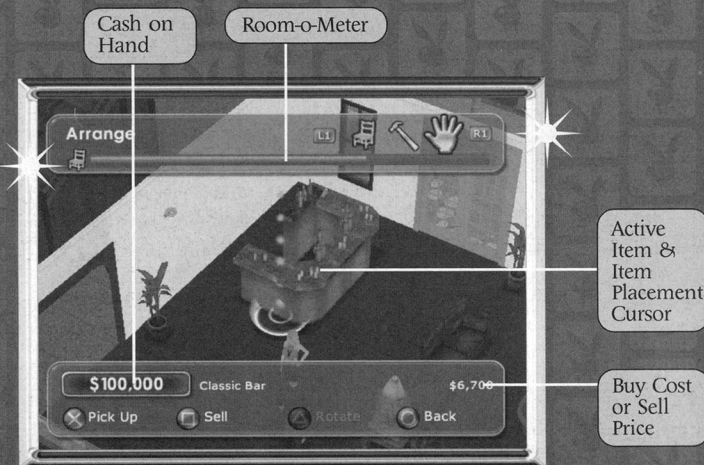

Press the  button from the main gameplay screen to enter the Relationship Screen. You'll see the status of everyone who's developed a relationship. Pull the left or right trigger to view relationships between people in your mansion only or to view the relationships of everyone everywhere.

To see how one person feels about another, highlight his or her name. The people with whom they've formed relationships will appear in the right-hand window. Remember, green bars mean they have a positive relationship. Red bars mean that they'd rather not be in the same room with one another. The longer the bar, the stronger the sentiment.

Decorating 101: Building & Arranging Your Mansion

Whether you've just purchased a new item or are looking to rearrange those you already have, the Arrange Screen is the place to be.

From this screen, you can do several things:

- Pick Up & Place Items: Press the  button to pick up items or to place items you're already holding. Architectural items may not be picked up. They must be destroyed.
 - Green means you can place the object in the current location.
 - Red means the current location isn't suitable for the item.
- Build Walls: Press the  button to anchor the wall, and use the left analog stick to move the wall out in any direction. Press the  button again to choose another anchor point. When you're finished building the wall, press the  button.
- Sell or Destroy Items: Highlight an item or object and press the  button to sell or destroy it. You'll see the resale value of the item in the lower right corner. Most, but certainly not all, items depreciate. You won't get cash back for destroying items, but it costs you nothing.
- Rotate Items: Press the  button to rotate objects to your liking.
- Fill: For floors and walls, you'll also have the option to "flood fill" the area, unless you like doing tiling or wallpaper work.

As you place objects within an area, you'll notice the Room-O-Meter rising. This is a measure of how many items the area can hold.

Items 101: Everything You Need to Know

Every furnishing and building object is made up of six separate components, each of which comes factory installed.

- Category: All items are sorted into various categories. Pressing the  button opens a category and allows you to see the items in it.
- Name: What's in a name? A general idea of what the item is, of course.
- Description: Press the  button to toggle the item's description on and off.
- Cost: The cost of an item is a delicate combination of its function, its aesthetic appeal, its ability to satisfy people's drives and its creator's random whim. This is how much it costs to buy this item.
- Drive Value: The Drive Value shows you the object's primary use. The numbers next to the drive icons range from 0 to 9, with nine being a top-of-the-line super satisfyin' machine. Drive icons are:

- Room Value: An item's room value shows you how much aesthetic value it has — its pure “wow” power when people see it in a room. A room value typically ranges from 0 to 9, with 0 being your average beige wall.

To view the items in a category, press the  button to select the category's name. To purchase a highlighted item, press the  button.

Mood Indicator

Press the L2 button to see how everyone's doing. When you do, you'll notice a ring rise above everyone's heads. Like relationships, the rings range from a solid green circle to a jagged red angry little circle with virtual thorns. If you find a lot of people are miserable, use the People Finder to investigate further. Are their drives satisfied? Mood affects everything a character does, so the more green you see, the better.

Intro to Coupling 101: Hooking People Up

Ask anyone who's anyone, and they'll tell you it's all about connections. As Hef, introducing people is going to be one of your regular party activities.

To introduce people:

- Ask someone to follow you.
- Find and select the person you want to introduce them to.
- Select “Make Introductions.”
- Select the conversation type depending on your goals (or theirs).

Introducing people can have numerous benefits:

- It helps you to reach your objectives and goals.
- Playmates and Bunnies can raise people's moods.
- Girlfriends can increase your relationship level with someone.
- People can satisfy their social drives without you standing around talking to them individually! If two people are failing their Professional drive, introducing them to each other professionally fixes the problem and leaves you free to work on other things.

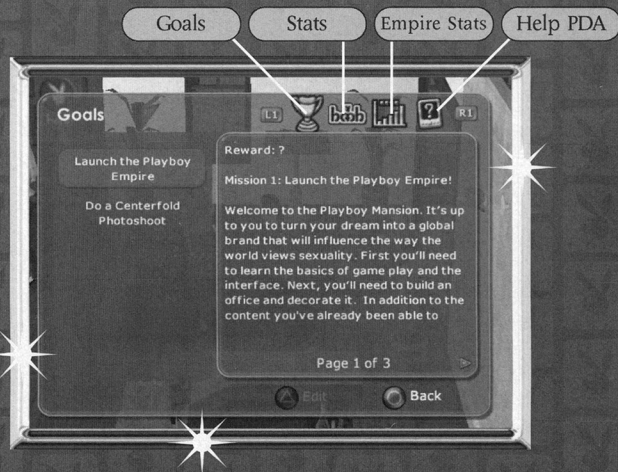

Tweakage 101: The Character Editor

When you've progressed far enough in the game, you'll unlock the People Editor where you can adjust everything from their hair color and style to their body shape.

The Hef Menu

It's All About You

The Hef Menu provides you with all the information you'll need on your ever-expanding empire. Press the left directional button to enter the Hef Menu. Pull the left or right trigger to move between the various menus.

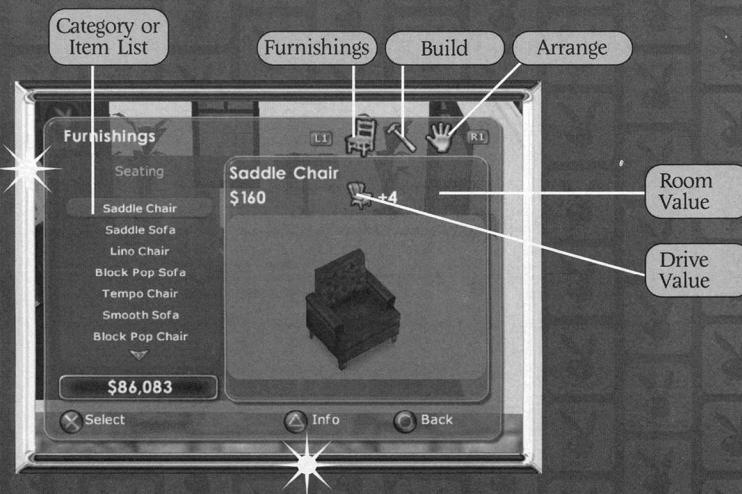

Your key information is broken down into four separate areas:

- Goals: The goal list shows your active goals as well as those that you have completed. In Mission Play, this list refreshed at the beginning of every mission.
- Stats: The stats screen is your personal roster entry. You'll see your current intellect, charm and physique, plus your interest in various topics.
- Empire Stats: How many women have you kissed? How many people are mad at you? It's all here and more.
 - Help PDA: Whatever your question, the Help PDA has your answer.

The Mansion Menu

Building The Playboy Mansion of Your Dreams

The Mansion menu lets you turn your one-bedroom villa into a decadent paradise fit for a Playboy. Press right on the directional buttons to enter The Mansion menu. Press the L1 button or R1 button to move between the various screens.

The budding Playboy Mansion contractor and interior decorator will find everything he or she needs in The Mansion menu:

- Furnishings: The Furnishings Screen is your virtual store and shows you all the items available for purchase in this area.
- Building: The Building Screen provides you all the components necessary to build new rooms or landscape your lawn.
- Arrange: The Arrange Screen lets you pick up, place, rotate and rearrange your mansion's contents and plan to your heart's content.
